

In an attempt to prevent the amateur service from becoming another 11 meter nightmare, please leave and perhaps increase the code and technical requirements for both the General and Extra Class licenses in the Amateur Radio Service. A relaxation of these rules and requirements would not be in the best interest of the service.

Sincerely,

Larry G. Couser

W5FOF